No. 216. OCTOBER 1920.

THE FOURTH SOUTHERN TEXTILE EXPOSITION

was held in the city of Greenville South Carolina during the week of October 18 to 23. The exhibition is reported to have been by far the best that has ever been held in the South. The available space was all taken by exhibitors and it is reported that quite a large number were unable to obtain space. A thoroughly representative crowd of people filled the building and included Presidents, Treasurers, Agents, Superintendents and Overseers from all the Southern cotton manufacturing states. While no unusual developments in cotton machinery were shown, the exhibits as a whole caused much favorable comment.

Our illustrations show the Draper Corporation space and our people in charge.
